The SiebertNet Sites ("Siebert Sites") include general news and information, commentary, interactive tools, quotes, research reports and data concerning the financial markets, securities and related topics. Some of that content is supplied by companies that have no affiliation with Muriel Siebert & Co., Inc. ("Third Party Content"). Most Third Party Content is available through framed areas or through hyperlinks to third-party Web sites, and the source for each clearly and prominently identified.

Although Third Party Content may be framed-in on the Siebert Sites or available through a link to a third-party site, please be advised that Muriel Siebert & Co., Inc. Siebert therefore does not guarantee its accuracy, correctness, reliability, quality, performance, timeliness, completeness or usefulness, and is not responsible or liable for any content, advertising, products, services or other materials on or available from third-party sites. Your access and use of Third Party Content is solely and exclusively at your own risk. The products referenced in the planning tools and calculators which are not offered by Siebert include, but are not limited to, life insurance, annuities and mortgage and personal loans (with the exception of margin loans, if you qualify). In addition, the planning tools and calculators reference various account types and services that Siebert may not offer. Moreover, the tools and calculators include databases and projections that may assist users in planning, for instance, for retirement, educational and life insurance needs and asset allocation. Under no circumstances is the information contained in any planning tools, calculators and any other third-party content to be construed as investment advice, or as an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any particular investment or to be used to support such an action. Please consult your own investment, tax and/or legal advisor, as appropriate, regarding your individual investing and planning needs. Siebert does not provide investment, tax or legal advice.

In order to comply with applicable laws and regulations, Siebert may at times exclude content with respect to securities of issuers which are the subject of public offerings made available to Siebert's brokerage customers, or otherwise.
